August Community Game Day
Sunday, August 20 | 11:00AM to 6:00PM
Plenty of Games | L1/278 Collins St, Melbourne VIC

Join us for our upcoming Community Game Day; a fun social event designed for both new and seasoned players alike. Join us for an exciting day of D&D games and mini-painting, where camaraderie, creativity, and adventure await!

Whether you're a seasoned adventurer or just dipping your toes into the world of D&D, our Community Game Day is the perfect opportunity to meet like-minded enthusiasts, roll some dice, and forge unforgettable memories.

Q. Is there a cost for attending?
Nope, this CGD is free! Just bring any adventuring paraphernalia you might need and get ready for a good time.

Q. Where do we sign up?
As we wish to encourage newcomers to attend, we will only be opening sign-ups on the day. More information on will be made available closer to the date.

Q. How will the Mini-Painting work?
You can bring your own mini(s) and materials, but we will have a all the basic materials needed on hand to loan to those who want to give it a go. Note that the minis we supply are in limited quantities, so we'll only be giving them to people who will sit down to actually paint.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED!

PAX is upon us once more, and as always, MelbDDAL will be there to bring that D&D goodness! We're opening up expressions of interest for both DMs running the games & Spruikers helping manage the tables.

Familiarity with Adventurers League is preferred for both roles, but is not a strict requirement. In order to qualify for the free volunteer pass, there are a minimum number of shifts that you need to be rostered on for. However, if you'd like to volunteer your time and talents, you're also very welcome to do so.

What do I need?

- Peril at the Port is an interactive Epic Adventure for Tier 1 (level 1-4) and Tier 2 (level 5-10) characters.
